

HELLO AGAIN

VOL. 24 NO. 1

JAN – FEB 1993

RAY STANICH, OTR's foremost writer of logs and reference material, died on December 24th. Ray was a friend of mine, without whose help I could never have written my material with the detail that it has. Ray had access to various files and listings at CBS, NBC and New York's Libraries and used this information for his projects and others. Not only did he help me, but he also was doing much research for John Dunning's revision of Tune in Yesterday. His book about American entertainers and all the radio programs they were in was almost completed. Hopefully, all his logs will eventually be available through Hello Again.

A PERSONAL NOTE: Many thanks for all the holiday wishes. Greg Jackson sent his annual personality card, this time with captions from Steve Allen and Cesar Romero. This year his Christmas seal was dated 1934, my birth year. Steve Hiss sent me a CD of the Broadway production of Crazy For You. Many thanks. I hope you all had an enjoyable holiday season...Because of my new format, it is much easier for me not to take flyers, but to take camera ready material that I will print with my newsletter. From now on the cost of 8 1/2 by 11 camera ready material is $45 for 1 side and $60 for 2 sides. Circulation is close to 400...Don't forget to let me know what you are looking for, what new shows you have, what you are doing. There never is a charge for putting this information in HA.

Radio Re-creations in New Haven are now a reality. The Dandelion Players, a local repertory group, is now starting to re-create radio plays with their first production on Feb. 14 at the Shubert Theater. Unfortunately, seating is limited for this first performance. Lon Clark and Barney Beck are special guests in a re-creation of a Nick Carter script adapted for Valentine's Day. I will be acting as adviser and will also be performing with my wife, Karen. We, the Shubert Radio Theater and the New Orleans Radio Theater would like to hear from other similar groups and how they addressed the copyright situation. In any production like this, there is no money made. Often, a local public radio station tapes the show for possible broadcast. You may contact me or Charlie Matkin with the New Orleans group. Charlie's address is 6404 Beauregard Ave., New Orleans, LA 70124 (504) 283-2892.

RADIO IS ALIVE AND WELL: Jackson Beck received the 1992 Ken Harvey Award from AFTRA for his untiring work with AFRA and then AFTRA from 1937. Among other things he has been convention delegate, National vice president, president and vice president of the New York local and served on many Boards and many committees and negotiating teams.

ULTIMATE LOG: As of the end of January, over 300 copies have been sold. Cost is $40 plus $3 for P & H. I am beginning to get corrections and additions. Ray Stanich had already started to send in information. Jerry Austin in California also is a big help.

NECROLOGY LOG: An oversight: the log is $7 but for those who purchased the original, smaller log for $3, the cost of the new log is the difference, $4.

CONVENTION 1993: Dates are October 21 – 23, 1993, again at the Holiday Inn – North.

RADIO IS ALIVE AND WELL: Paul Pitzer mentions that he donated his radio program collection to Washington State University in Pullman, WA. If others are interested contact Mr. Gene Semington, Media Special Services, Holland Library, Wash. State Un., Pullman, WA 99164. It could be a good tax deduction...Radio was not well when WNEW-AM ceased to exist on December 15. The Make Believe Ballroom would have been 58 years old in February...A reminder that Wednesday, February 10, 1993 is the 100th anniversary of the birth of Jimmy Durante.
